under act of June, 1872.

Minneapolis demis monde do not prosper as finely as they anticipated under democratic administration.
Mayor Wilson will enforce the ordinances of that city,
"no matter who is hit."

The recent advance in freights by the competing railway lines from Chicago to the East is said to be the first instance on record in which through freights have advanced simultaneously with the opening of navigation. It is asserted that this advance has been dictated by the New York and Erie and the New York Central Companies, which have lines of steamers on the lakes, in order to drive freights to those steamers. The rate by steamer to Buffalo and rail to New York is 83 1/2 cents; by all rail from Chicago to New York, 45 cents. This is a good argument for the enlargement and improvement of the through water routes from the west to the east, recommended in the report of the Special Committee on Transportation. At present the water routes afford only partially competing lines. The demand for Minnesota wheat for milling purposes at the east, has become so great that Chicago has made special efforts to control this trade by providing elevators in which the best grades of Minnesota wheat could be kept unmixd. The enterprise, however, has not proved a success, for the reason that buyers prefer to send their agents to Minnesota, where they are absolutely certain to obtain the pure article, and by making through shipment they save the elevator charge of two cents a bushel in Chicago. Winona is now the headquarters for this rapidly increasing trade, which extends not only to the east, but to Europe.
Minnesota wheat and flour are now sold by sample in Liverpool as well as in New York.—Winona Republican.

NORTHERN PACIFIC AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The Senate Committee on Railroads have decided as preliminary to their action on the Northern Pacific guarantee bill to require from the Company a detailed statement of bonds issued by them, and the present condition of the Company's affairs. The friends of the bill are not confident of its passage this season, but are assured of its gaining ground for next season.

COURT-MARTIAL.

ST. PAUL, May 19.—A General Court-Martial, Gen. W. B. Hazen, president, convened in this city yesterday.

FLOOD.

All the Eastern papers are filled with details of a terrible disaster last Saturday on Mill River, Mass. The dam of the Goshen Reservoir Co., covering, one hundred and fifty acres of ground with water thirty feet deep, broke away in the morning. A watchman started to warn the village below, but was overtaken by the flood and had to take refuge on a hill. The flood pushed ahead down the valley a mass of sweeping drift thirty feet high, behind which crowded the whole body of water, moving forward at the rate of twenty miles an hour. In twenty minutes it had swept through Williamsburgh to Northampton, destroying seventeen mills and factories, which employed fifteen hundred people, besides sweeping away out houses, shops, &c., and over one hundred and fifty persons. Lives lost at Williamsburgh, sixty; Haydensville, thirty; Skinner's Hill, four; Teeds, fifty-one—and eighty cases of insanity in consequence. They report that the force of the current was beyond description. Timbers, stone and brick were crushed and splintered fine; iron boilers and machinery broken, bent or flattened, and the beautiful valley covered with a vast waste of mud and debris.

LATER.

The loss by the Mill River disaster is two hundred and fifty lives and five million dollars. New England cities have subscribed fifty thousand dollars for the sufferers.

ARKANSAS.

LITTLE ROCK, May 19.—All quiet here.

Baxter has revoked his proclamation of martial law.

HURT HIS FEELINGS.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 20.—Gen. Mead yesterday called out the militia to protect him from arrest for debt, but subsequently gave bail and dismissed the troops. The streets in Columbia last evening were full of militia and all business suspended.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ST. PAUL, May 20.—W. W. Eaton, President Grant's Proclamation Recognising Baxter.

Baxter's Proclamation.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The following is the President's proclamation relative to the Arkansas question, and which has been telegraphed to Little Rock for the information of all concerned.

By the President of the United States.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, Certain turbulent and disorderly persons, pretending that E.
Baxter, the present Executive of Arkansas, was not elected, have combined together, with force and arms to resist his authority as such Executive, and the other authorities of said State, and WHEREAS, Said Baxter has been declared duly elected by the General Assembly of said State, as provided in the constitution thereof, and has for a long period been exercising the functions of said office, into which he was inducted according to the laws and constitution of said State, and ought by its citizens to be considered its lawful executive thereof, and

WHEREAS, It is provided in the Constitution of the United States, that the United States shall protect the States in the Union on application of the Legislature, or the Executive when the Legislature cannot convene, against domestic violence; and

WHEREAS, Said E. Baxter, under section 4, article 4 of the Constitution of the United States, and laws passed in pursuance thereof, has heretofore made application to me to protect said State and the citizens thereof against domestic violence; and

WHEREAS, The General Assembly of said State convened in extra session at the Capitol thereof, on the 11th inst., pursuant to a call made by said E. Baxter, and both Houses thereof passed a joint resolution applying to me to protect the State against domestic violence; and

WHEREAS, It is provided in the laws of the United States that in all cases of insurrection in any State against the laws thereof, it shall be lawful for the President, upon application of the Legislature of such State, or of the Executive when the Legislature cannot be convened, to employ such part of the land and naval forces as shall be judged necessary for the purpose of suppression of such insurrection, or causing the laws to be duly executed; and

WHEREAS, It is required that whenever it may be necessary, in the judgment of the President as aforesaid, he shall forthwith by proclamation command such insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective homes, within a limited time;

Now, therefore, I, U. S. Grant, President of the United States, do hereby make proclamation and command all turbulent and disorderly persons to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within ten days from this date, and hereafter submit themselves to the law and authority of said Executive and other constituted authorities of said State; and I invoke the aid and co-operation of all good citizens to uphold the law and preserve the public peace.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, this 15th day of May, in the year of our Lord, 1874, and of Independence of the United States ninety-eight.

(Signed) U. S. GRANT, President.

By HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

BAXTER'S PROCLAMATION.

Governor Baxter, this afternoon, issued the following:

HEADQUARTERS STATE OF ARKANSAS, LITTLE ROCK, May 15th.)
General Order No. 25.

Officers and soldiers of the State of Arkansas, inspired by true patriotism, you have responded to my call to resist and put down by arms, the most inexcusable and reckless attempt to usurp the government of this State that ever disgraced our country. Regardless of your individual interests, and of everything but the public good, you came to support civil liberty, and in the face of great and perplexing difficulties you have stood manfully at your posts.
Your patience and discipline have only been equalled by your courage. You are restrained by your respect for law and peace, from making war on the Federal soldiers who stand persistently between you and the insurgent force in the capital. Upon every occasion when you have been able to meet public enemies, you have been victorious, and forced them to seek protection behind

Federal bayonets, and at length your valor and patriotism are rewarded by the following, which has been received from Washington: [The proclamation of the President.] As citizens and soldiers of Arkansas, I congratulate you.
You will see to it for the future that, as by your promptness and vigilance and good conduct in this city, the rights of citizens of our State have been preserved from a vile ring of tyrants and thieves, so in the future they shall be preserved and handed down unsullied to our posterity. Henceforth let Arkansas be the home of a free people who know their rights and dare maintain them.
Finally let us together give thanks to the great God of armies who has blessed our cause. Let us remember with gratitude the great citizen-soldier, the President of the United States, who has at length recognized the justice of our cause, and as your conduct has been thus far marked to an extraordinary degree, by order, sobriety and discipline, let not our friends, the people, have any cause to censure you for any disorder or riotous conduct in the moment of victory.

The Commanding General will see that this order is read at the head of each company at retreat this evening.
(Signed) ELISHA BAXTER, Governor of Arkansas, and Commander-in-Chief.

M. McCLELLAN,
Adjutant General.

BROOKS SURRENDERS.

To-night Mr. Brooks sent a communication to the Governor to arrange for the disbanding of the forces on both sides. The Governor referred the matter to his commanding officer, Gen.
Newton.

River News.

The river is falling rapidly at this point. The recent four foot rise was not from the mountains—merely a rain rise, hence its rapid fall. The regular June freshet will reach here in about one week, according to the predictions of river men.

The Nellie Peck landed at our levee 9 o'clock Sunday night, twenty-eight days out from Sioux City. She experienced much bad luck. The second day out she burst one of her steam pipes which delayed her three days. Upon reaching Brule Agency she encountered a low river and was obliged to double trip between that place and Cheyenne Agency, occupying ten days. She received about twenty tons of freight here for Fort Benton, and put out, Monday noon, drawing three and a half feet forward.

The Katie P. Kountz met with a serious accident to her machinery, thirty miles below Grand River, which will disable her a greater portion of the boating season. She "ran through herself"—i. e., she stove out one of her cylinder heads, throwing the pitman clear from her deck into nine feet of water. She is coming up the river slowly on one engine and will probably be here this week. This accident is a very severe blow to the Kountz Line, as there is now in the neighborhood of 700 tons of freight here for delivery at Carroll, by that line, and the Katie is the best boat they have. She will lay here until a new engine can be cast and forwarded from Pittsburgh, Pa.

The ferry boat, Union which has been resting on a sand-bar for a long time, below Ft. Thompson, is on her way to this city, and will doubtless reach here to-day or to-morrow.

The Far West, the Key West and the E. H. Durfee are coming up the river; the Far West is due.

The Ida Stockdale steamed down the river Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of towing the crippled steamer, Katie P. Kountz up to this city. Upon her return she will probably load or Carroll.
She will only go as far as Ft. Peck, however; her licence does not extend above that point. Her trip will be re-shipped from that place on the May Lowry.

The Peninah is reported by Gen.
Hazen as double tripping from the mouth of the Yellowstone to Carroll, and it is the common opinion here that all the boats now up the river in that vicinity will be obliged to await a rise, as it will be more profitable to wait, than to double trip to Ft. Benton.

The Josephine began to receive her Ft. Benton trip, Monday morning, and cleared on Wednesday evening. She will take 250 tons, and expects to make the run in ten days, if she meets with no unforeseen accident, this little craft which is a Bismarck institution, is the finest passenger packet on the old Muddy, and she is also claimed by her friends to be the fastest steamer that "floats the creek." She is new and has never yet been put to her mettle on a long trip, but she has already demonstrated remarkable speed. She made the distance between this city and Ft.

Stevenson, last season, 175 miles, in just twenty-one hours, which has never before been accomplished.

The "Summer Editor" has gone below, and the "mechanical department" has its hands full of business just now; consequently we will fill the TRIBUNE with news and allow our readers to write their own editorials.

Would it not be well for the citizens of Bismarck to organize a fire department? Let a fire break out in almost any portion of the town, and with such winds as we occasionally have here, hardly a building would be left to mark the spot where Bismarck now stands. Who will move in the matter? An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure.

J. D. Nutting, of Faribault, Minn., ex-Surveyor General, is stopping at the Bailey House, Bismarck, for a few days.

The Senate Committee reported favorably on the bill extending for five years the time for completing the St. Croix Land Grant Railroad. The bill was put on the calendar but will be called up in a few days, and probably passed. The bill has no particular opposition in the committee since the Wisconsin Congressmen advocated its passage.

J. A. Wheelock, editor of the St. Paul Press has been re-appointed Postmaster at St. Paul. The Pioneer in closing an article congratulating him, says: There is no absence of cordiality in this expression. Whatever difference of opinion obtain between the Press and Pioneer, or whatever sharp expressions a business rivalry betrays that paper into indulging, its editor rests secure in the esteem and regard of a journalistic associate who knows him thoroughly and esteems him accordingly. There are few men who improve with close acquaintance, but Mr. Wheelock is one of them. To him and his business associate, therefore, who shares with him the labors of his post, and to whose watchfulness and business ability the efficiency of the office is due, we say with honest old "Rip," "Here's to you and your families; may you live long and prosper."

The woman's suffrage campaign of Michigan, which is expected to tell at the polls next fall in the settlement of the female suffrage question in that State, has been fairly inaugurated. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton is at the head of the work and has engaged to speak in most of the leading towns. Subscriptions have been asked for and a considerable amount given to carry forward the work. It is estimated that over 16,000 female property-holders pay taxes to the State, and this fact is urged as a reason why they should be allowed to vote.

GEN. HAZEN'S LETTER.

The Document To Which Custer Replied.

The following is a copy of Gen. Hazen's letter, to which a reply from Gen. Custer was printed last week. Replies from Gen. Roberts, Mayor McGinnis, and Col. Lounsbury have also been published, and it seems but fair to give Gen. Hazen a hearing:

To the Editor of the Tribune:

SIR: For two years I have been an observer of the effort upon the part of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company to make the world believe this section to be a valuable agricultural one, and, with many others, I have kept silent although knowing the falsity of their representations, while they have pretty fully carried their point in establishing a popular belief favorable to their wishes. While reading such statements of its fertility as appear in the article entitled "Poetry and Philosophy of Indian Summer," in that most estimable periodical, Harper's Monthly, of December, 1873—in which are repeated most of the shameless falsehoods so lavishly published the past two years, as advertisements in the interests of that company, and perhaps written by the same pen—a feeling of shame and indignation arises that any of our countrymen, especially when so highly favored with the popular good will and benefits, should deliberately indulge in such wicked deceptions.

The theoretical isothermals of Capt. Maury and Mr. Blodget, which have given rise to so much speculation, and are used so extravagantly by those who have a use for them, although true along the Pacific coast, are not found to be true, by actual experience and observation, in this middle region.

My post of duty is at the mouth of the Yellowstone, at the intersection of 104 meridian west with the 48th parallel north, in the midst of this so-called "northern tropical belt," and while nature stares me in the face with its stubborn contradictions, I shall put them on paper. I shall give a table of temperatures and rainfall taken from accurate daily observations at this post since 1866:

The excessive cold of winter is here shown; the monthly mean being worthy of special notice, while the annual variation of temperature is from 130 to 138 degrees. June, July, and August were the only months in the last twelve in which we have not had snow storms, or the temperature down to 15 degrees. I have before me the meteorological reports from the other military posts in this region, and they do not differ widely from this.

The humidity as seen is insufficient for any general agriculture, such agriculture requiring in countries remote from the sea from 40 to 50 inches. To the average here given, however, may be added about four inches that fall as snow.

The Indian Summers here are beautiful beyond description, that of the past autumn rivaling the wildest flights of imagination, and lasting until the 25th of November, and without doubt extending to the region of the Saskatchewan. But ten days afterward, Dec. 5, the thermometer stood at 27° below zero. The storms in Minnesota and Dakota, last winter and spring, in which hundreds of people lost their lives, are fresh in the memories of all. This entire North-western country is subject to these terrific winter storms, which animal life cannot withstand unless thoroughly protected. I have seen an area of country 20 miles across strewn with the carcasses of buffalo that must have perished in one of these storms. Not a winter has passed since this post was established, in 1866, but some poor soldier of its garrison has lost life or limb by freezing.

I have under my command 30 Indian scouts, among whom there are several northern Assiniboines, whose country and range extend well into the British Possessions on both branches of the Saskatchewan. I have made the most particular inquiries about the Saskatchewan country of all these people, as well as of half breeds who have been in the employ of the Hudson Bay Company, and officers of the army who have been longest in this country. They agree in the following description: That in general appearance it resembles Minnesota, being a level, upland prairie, with numerous lakes, and a good soil. It is a more desirable country than that along the Upper Missouri, in these respects, but is colder, and has a shorter and dryer season. They raise wheat, oats, barley, and native corn, if the season is wet enough, but the crops often fail for want of moisture.

The past season, as seen by the meteorological report, has been exceptionally rainy and favorable for agriculture here, and the past has with great care, and by utilizing all the available season, made an extensive garden with the following results. The garden is situated immediately on the river bank about two feet above high water. Potatoes, native corn, cabbage, early-sown turnips, early peas, early beans, beets, carrots, parsnips, salsify, cucumbers, lettuce, radishes, and asparagus have grown abundantly and matured. Melons, pumpkins and squashes have not matured. Tomatoes did not turn red. American corn (early) reached to roasting ears. Onions, with wheat and oats, matured at Fort Berthold, D. T., 150 miles below, on the Missouri River. I am told by those who have been here a long time that this may be taken as a standard of what may be expected in the most favorable seasons on the immediate bottoms of the streams. The native Indian corn matures in about ten weeks from planting. It puts out its ears from six to eight inches from the ground, and has a soft white grain without any flinty portion, and weighs about two-thirds as much as other corn.

My own quarters are situated on the second bench of the banks of the Missouri, about 50 feet above that stream, and 600 yards away from it. And to raise a flower-garden 10 feet by 40, the past two years, has required a daily sprinkling of three barrels of water, for which we were repaid by about three weeks of flowers.

The defeat of Attorney General Williams for the Chief Justiceship has prostrated his wife and she lies at her beautiful home in Washington ill with the fever.

"Napkins, sir? napkins?" roared a Green Bay landlord; "no, sir, we haven't got any; but if you want to wipe your nose, I'll lend you my handkerchief."

Butler will be fifty-six years old next November. The proposal to make the anniversary of his birth a day of national fasting and prayer excites much enthusiasm.

During a revival at Green Bay, a citizen is reported to have arisen and asked to be forgiven, for having been a subscriber to the Chicago Times for nineteen years.

Life insurance is not popular in Kansas, because there is no method of telling whether a man in good health will live ten hours after he commences to talk politics.

Logan, in speaking of the veto, said: "Yes, it is a hell of a message. It is a wonderful message; more damned nonsense was probably never condensed in the same space."

"You must be a quarrelsome fellow," said a phrenologist to a man whose bumps he was examining. "Say that again and I'll knock you down," was the response.

Sixteen years ago, Tom Kenyon went to Kansas City, with a cent, and the other day he signed a check for sixteen thousand dollars. He signed with another man's name, however.

Louis E. Fisher, the veteran editor of the St. Paul Pioneer still retains his connections. Without Fisher the Pioneer would be a wreck. Dave Blakely's jokes would not save it.

Prof. Swing defies his persecutors and in repudiating their blue blazes doctrines insists that: "The mind is its own place, and in itself can make a hell of heaven or a heaven of hell."

Charles Ernest—the officer whom Waltz, the murderer, was incorrectly reported to have killed, the day before his execution—has recovered sufficiently to be removed to his residence.

Col. E. A. Calkins has invested $16,000 of his back pay in the Milwaukee News, of which he again becomes the editor, Geo. H. Paul retiring, having been appointed Railroad Commissioner.

The Sioux Falls Pantagraph prints each week the announcement that it has a larger circulation than any other paper in the Sioux Valley, and adds: "He that bloweth not his own horn, the same shall not be blown."

The stables of the Evergreen Trotting Park at Plainview, burned recently, together with the stallion Hambletonian, valued at $10,000, and two fast geldings Climax and Hiram, valued respectively at $4,000 and $5,000.

A land agent in Colorado remarked to an enquiring emigrant, that all that was needed to make the place a paradise was a comfortable climate, water, and good society. "That is all that is lacking in hell," was the reply.

A young man having put a crown piece into "the plate," in an Edinburgh church, by mistake, instead of a penny, asked to have it back, but was refused. In once, in forever. "Aweel, aweel," grunted he, "I will get credit for it in heaven." "Na, na," said Jeems, the doorkeeper, "ye'll get credit only for the penny ye meant to gie."

Frank Daggett says: Brackett hasn't started his morning paper in Minneapolis as yet. George ought to start a paper. The world has stood a good deal in its day, and just by way of an experiment George ought to start that paper to see how the jolly old planet would stand the pressure. Start'er George.

A St. Joseph, (Mo.) dispatch says: James B. Johnson, book-seller in this city, was arrested to-day, charged with a violation of the postal laws by sending through the mails a postal card bearing scurrilous and indecent language. He gave bail in $500 for appearing before the United States Court at Jefferson City.

The Vallejo Chronicle says: "A new 'cut-throat' game of cards has lately come in vogue, which promises to become the rage. The stake played for is a can of oysters. The first man out gets the oysters, the last gets the empty can, and the 'middle man' gets nothing. It is called 'Granger seven-up.'"

The St. Paul Press says: Gen. H. G. Thomas, of Fort Snelling, is among the late purchasers on that boulevard, he having taken half the "Schiffman-Graham" tract. Gen. T. has obtained a fine building site, which his many friends in St. Paul would be glad to see him build upon and occupy, if it be practicable.

An Italian jury recently acquitted a prisoner on a most ingenious plea. A tax collector of Naples absconded with public money amounting to $200,000. He was caught, brought back and tried, but the jury acquitted him because the money he had stolen was the people's money, and as he was one of the people he was part owner of that money, and of course it would be monstrous to convict a man of stealing what was his own.

JAS. W. RAYMOND,
A. ALLEN.
Bismarck, D. T., May 11th, 1874.

In retiring from the firm of Raymond & Allen, it affords me pleasure to comment the new firm of J. W. Raymond & Co. The people of Bismarck will find the gentlemen composing it live, thorough business men, and the new firm one worthy of confidence. As for myself, I thank the people of Bismarck for the many favors shown me, and I sincerely regret that business interests call me elsewhere.
Bismarck, May 12, 1874. A. ALLEN.

NOTICE OF CO-PARTNERSHIP.
A co-partnership is this day formed between Jas. W. Raymond, of Bismarck, & Geo. H. Fairchild, of St. Paul, under the firm name and style of J. W. Raymond & Co., for the transaction of a general mercantile and banking business, which has heretofore been carried on by Raymond & Allen.

Services at the Presbyterian Church every Sunday as follows: 10½ a. m. and 7½ p. m. Sabbath School and Bible Class at 2½. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at the Parsonage at 7½ o'clock.

The pay car will arrive this evening.

Marriages are in order now in Bismarck.

Mr. Shaw is building a new house west of Mr. Pye's.

'Tis fun to see McLean make garden and plant potatoes with a drag.

There is considerable talk of building a Catholic Church a little west of Capt. Raymond's house.

The Sisters of Charity, who have been in town for a few days, are reported as doing well, financially.

Col. Bradley, the new Quartermaster, has arrived with his family. He has rented Raymond's house.

Gen. Hazen, who left here for St. Paul, last Saturday, does not look as if the newspaper controversy troubled him much.

Lieut. Humbert offers a reward of $75 for the recovery of the three horses that got away from the Post a short time ago.

The Fort A. Lincoln Dramatic Association will occupy Morton's Hall one night as soon as the improvements now being made are completed.

The lumber yard has changed hands. Wells & Winston are running it now. They are good boys, too, and propose doing the square thing by their customers.

A horse-race, $200 a side, took place last Monday, at Fort Lincoln, between members of L and G Troops, distance 600 yards. Time, 31 seconds, won by L troop.

Mr. Shaw sold out nearly everything on Saturday at auction. He is fitting up the store for J. W. Raymond & Co., who will move their stock as soon as the building is ready.

Gen. Custer sends one wild cat and two porcupines to W. A. Conklin, Director of N. Y. Central Park Menagerie, by to-morrow's express. Keep your fingers away from the cage, boys.

Charles Anderson is digging a well on his claim one and one-half miles north of town; has plenty of pure water at the depth of forty feet. Doesn't this settle the water question on the high prairies?

Gen. Manager Mead, Supt. Sullivan, E. T. Williams, Purchasing Agent, Auditor Ford, Supt. of Bridges Wallace, and the veritable Rus. Munger of St. Paul, arrived by special train, at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Lieut. Chance came up on the Nellie Peck and will spend a few days in town. The Lieut. looks well but is not quite as fleshy as when he left. Perhaps the commissary grub does not agree with him as well as the high living here.

Col. Thompson is expending considerable money and labor on his farm north of town. He has built a good stable and is building a fine log-house. He has also several acres of oats sown, and is planting fruit and shade trees, and doing things up in good style. All honor to such men.

Pat. Moran, of Jamestown, D. T., shot a soldier through the stomach, on the 14th. An old grudge between the two seems to have existed for some time, and on last Saturday high words passed between them. The soldier afterwards left, when Moran stepped into the house, got a revolver and shot the soldier, the wound probably proving fatal.

Marshall & Campbell are removing their boat and shop from Bismarck.

The Northern Pacific Railroad is grading the road bed, preparatory to laying the new track to the upper landing.

Peter Walker, who has been digging a well for John Mason, is happy; over three feet of water, pure and cold, rewarded him for his labors.

A soldier accidentally shot himself last Monday afternoon. His wounds were dressed by Dr. Porter, after which he was sent over the river to his Post.

Capt. James Emmons arrived last evening. He had the misfortune to burn the boiler of the ferry boat Union, and she was left at the head of Sibley Island. The boat will be ready for business in three or four days.

Rev. Father J. B. Genin visited Bismarck this week.

Real imported Ginger Ale for sale by John Mason.

To keep cool, go to Forster's Restaurant, and try his Ice Cream.

Mr. Joseph Proctor, died very suddenly of heart disease, last Saturday.

Real imported Cigars for sale by John Mason.

Two car loads of horses came for the troops over the river one day last week—some fine looking ones.

Mr. Forster is prepared to supply all orders for Ice Cream or Cakes. Parties supplied at short notice.

Extra nice Tomato Plants, for sale cheap. W. CANNON, TRIBUNE Office.

Real imported Rotterdam Gin for sale by John Mason.

Dion & Co. have removed their carpenter shop to Front Street, two doors above the TRIBUNE office.

If you want a square meal go to Forster's Restaurant—the only house in town that furnishes it.

The dance at W. B. Shaw's old store on the evening of the 18th, was largely attended, and was a very pleasant affair.

All kinds of imported and domestic liquors, in bottles, for sale by John Mason.

McLean will receive by to-night's express, a choice lot of family butter, fresh fish, eggs, ham, &c.

The St. Louis Liquor Store have just set up a beautiful rosewood billiard table, novelty pattern.

I will receive by this night's train a choice lot of flowers, vegetables (cheap), cabbage and tomato plants.

FORSTER, of Forster's Restaurant.

To Creditors.

FORT LINCOLN, May 13, 1874. The creditors of S. A. Dickey, Post Trader, are hereby notified to appear and settle at once, or their accounts will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. 44tf S. A. DICKEY.
